

CALL FOR PROJECTS

OFF.T.A. – 4TH EDITION / MAY 28 TO JUNE 6, 2010

The OFF.T.A. is a festive event in theatre, dance and performance. Its original programming is focused on contemporary creation and the intertwining of performing arts. It aims to promote the vibrancy of the young artistic community and offer a ground for exchanges between artists of various disciplines. During the 10-day festivity, OFF.T.A. builds bridges between artists, producers and theatre-goers, all craving new artistic experiences.

The third edition of the OFF.T.A. was a raving success. It took place from May 21 to June 5, 2009, on the fringe of the Festival TransAmériques. It presented over twenty multidisciplinary shows, labs and special events in institutional as well as underground locations.

Now planning its fourth edition, the OFF.T.A. team is looking for creative and inspired artists and companies !
Make yourselves heard by sending us your projects.
